

In addition to the International Elections Protocol Resolution, NASS members voted to support the following language:

"NASS encourages Secretaries to work with their state legislatures to make any necessary changes to state law to allow for international observers."