The Outlaw Inn in Kalispell, Montana played host to the National Association of Secretaries of State. Just a few miles from Glacier National Park and Flathead Lake, there could not have been a more beautiful setting.

However, it was the conference program and speakers that held the attention of attendees. “Economic and Business Growth” was discussed by Austin Kiplinger, Editor of the Kiplinger Washington Letter. Michael Josephson, President of Josephson Institute of Ethics, presented “Ethics in Government.” Former Secretary of State Jim Douglas presented a discussion on “Encouraging Democracy Abroad,” while FEC Chairman Trevor Potter discussed “Promoting Democracy at Home.”

The National Voter Registration Act (NVRA) was the subject of a plenary session featuring election experts from across the country. Nationally Syndicated Columnist Jack Germond of the Baltimore Evening Sun entertained the conference at lunch. Congressman Sherrod Brown, the former Ohio Secretary of State, provided a “View From Here.”

Conference Attendees got to enjoy the Montana outdoors with trips to Glacier National Park, Flathead Lake, and lunch on the top of The Big Mountain Ski Resort. Conference activities included fishing, hiking, rafting, golfing, horseback trail rides, softball, and of course, shopping.

Providing a real flavor of Montana was Vince Yannon of the Montana Department of Fish, Wildlife, and Parks with his live animal presentation. Montana recording artists Jack Gladstone and Grammy-nominated pianist Philip Aaberg entertained Secretaries and guests on the last day of the conference.

The unofficial theme of the conference was “No Ties Allowed,” as Montana Secretary of State staff were equipped with scissors to immediately remove any offending ties during this casual but busy conference.
