

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT of STATE

SECRETARY OF STATE

CORD BYRD
MONDAY, JULY 10, 2023

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

PRESERVING FLORIDA'S HERITAGE

Collaborating with stakeholders to engage, preserve, and celebrate Florida's rich history

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT OF STATE
DIVISION OF Historical Resources

BAR

Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research

Bureau of Archaeological Research

Bureau of Historic Preservation

KNOTT HOUSE MUSEUM

THE GROVE MUSEUM

Bureau of Historic Museums

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

Programs and Partnerships

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

Bureau of Archaeological Research

BAR
Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research

Bureau of Archaeological Research Archaeological Resources Management (ARM) Training

ARM training at Mission San Luis, 2020

ARM training in Sarasota County, 2019

Bureau of Archaeological Research Law Enforcement Program

Examples of looter's holes in a state forest.

Florida Wildlife Commission Law Enforcement go on site as part of their initial training in cultural resource crimes.

Training for Archaeological Resource Protection for Law Enforcement

Dr. Paulette S. McFadden

Training webinar for active Law Enforcement members.

Damage Assessments

Above, three Florida Public Archaeology Network staff members assist the Florida Bureau of Archaeological Research in documenting damage in a Marion County Park. Right, an FWC officer inspects a trench that was dug by looters in the park.

Community Response

Florida has 'a lot of shipwrecks'

Melissa Price, a Florida Department of State archaeologist smiles after checking out the shipwreck site following a dive, Thursday, April 27, 2023, in Daytona Beach Shores. David Tucker/News-Journal

Archaeologists check out suspected shipwreck in Daytona Beach Shores

Debris was unearthed by rough weather

Crews study possible shipwreck in Daytona Beach Shores

Daytona Beach Shores shipwreck site

Working with the Public to Preserve Cultural Resources

Vessel One.

Vessel Two.

The remnants of an oar that was found with the two vessels.

Bureau of Archaeological Research staff preparing to load one of the two vessels for transport to Tallahassee.

Brandy Hill and Randy Chancey on the day the Bureau of Archaeological Research took possession of the watercraft.

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

Collaborative Partnerships to Protect and Repatriate Human Remains under State and Federal Laws

Archaeology Collections and Conservation Program

Conservation Lab

Before conservation

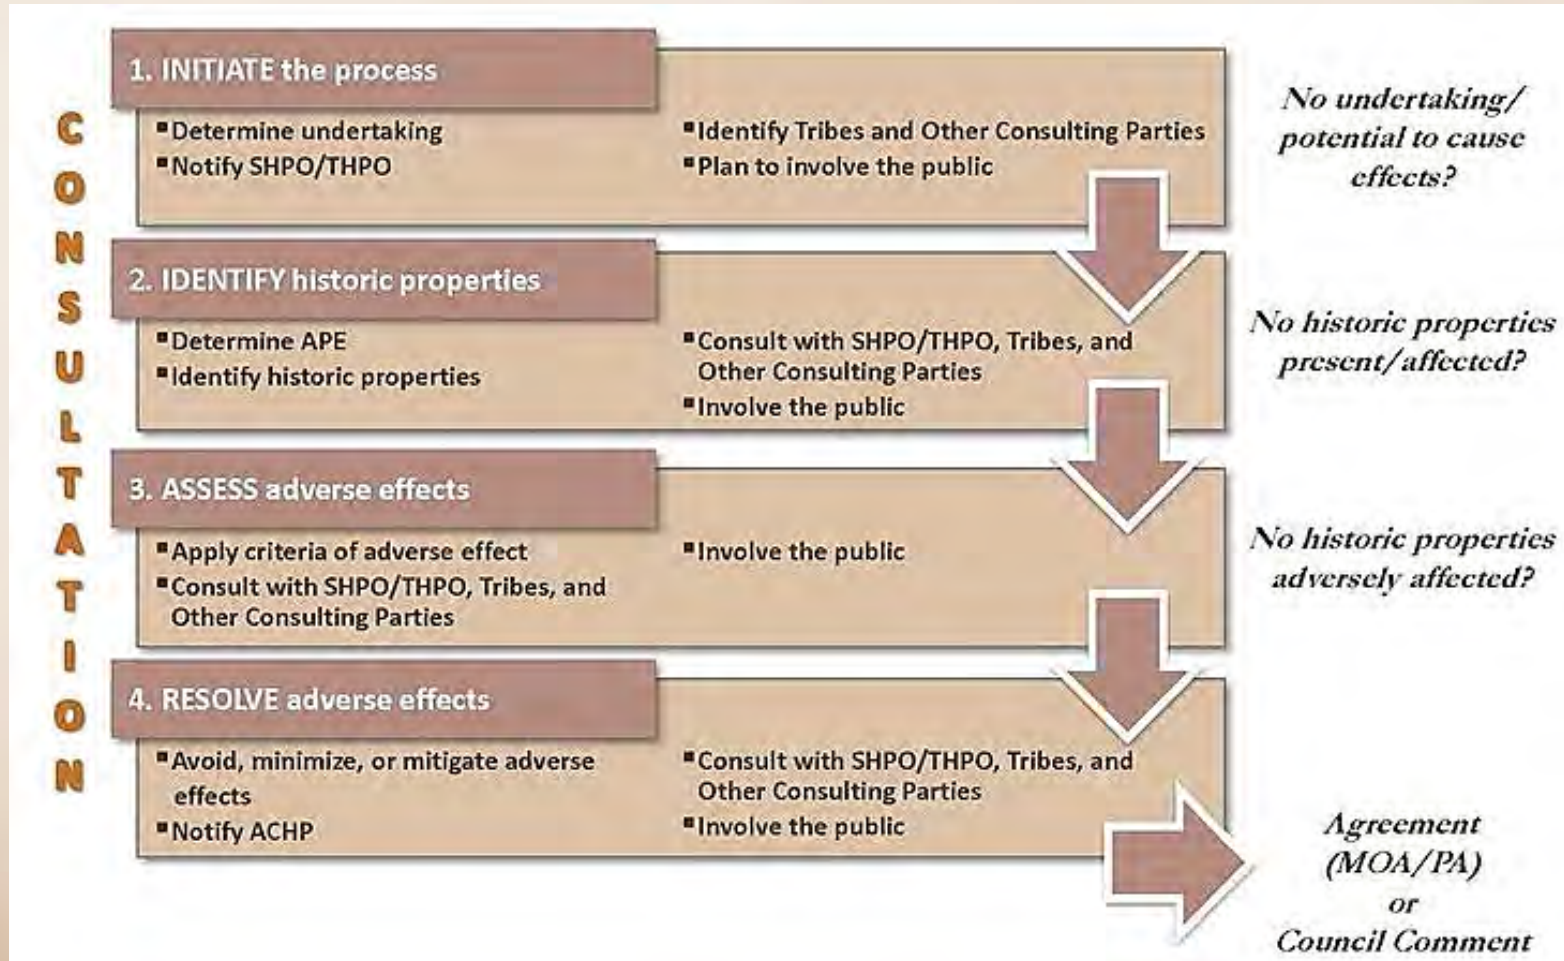

After conservation

Section 106 Process

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

Efficient Transportation Decision Making (ETDM)

FEMA & Disaster

Sustained water damage at a store in Arcadia Main Street.

Drying out The Mound House archaeological exhibit in Ft. Myers Beach.

Historic Ft. Myers Beach Elementary School after Hurricane Ian, a current FEMA project.

St. Luke's Baptist Church in Marianna, damaged during Hurricane Michael.

State of Florida Working with French Archaeologists

State of Florida meeting with the Spanish Delegation

DOS Staff with Native Tribes

Muscogee Creek Nation

Seminole Tribe of Florida

Council House at Mission San Luis National Historic Landmark

FLORIDA
DEPARTMENT
of STATE

Historic Cemeteries Program

FLORIDA DEPARTMENT of STATE

THANK YOU.

DOS.MYFLORIDA.COM